WHAT IS NAWIC?

The National Association of Women in Construction (NAWIC) was founded in 1953 by 16 women working in the construction industry. Knowing that women represented only a small fraction of the industry, the founders organized NAWIC to create a support network. The original charter was so successful that it gained its national charter in 1955 and became the National Association of Women in Construction. NAWIC has a membership of approximately 4,000 with over 120 chapters in almost every state.

As word of NAWIC spread, several foreign countries became interested in the cause to enhance the success of women in the construction industry. They include:
